

Strengths Profile

Master Accreditation

Live Overview
Level 3

Introduction

Who should use it?

Coaches who want to become experts in Strengths Profile and support clients to unlock their potential. Building on your strengths knowledge, the Master Accreditation shows you how to have powerful conversations about strengths dynamics and Profile changes over time.

Managers who want to appreciate and develop the unique strengths of their team and to have impactful strengths discussions with each member about performance and professional development.

HR Professionals who want to deepen and champion the strengths approach within their organization by embedding it within individuals, teams and managers.

Educators who want to have engaging career conversations with students about their strengths and suitable careers, and get them ready to celebrate and share their strengths in interviews.

Total program time

Prior to beginning the Level 3 Master Accreditation, it is necessary to complete the Level 2 Accreditation.

- The Master Accreditation comprises of 4 Modules of pre-recorded videos, covering deep expertise on the application of strengths within Coaching, Teams, Careers and Managers.
- Each Module will refer to the relevant Toolkit for additional content and support for you to embed strengths in these areas following the program.
- Each Module includes assignments to embed your learning and optional resources to ensure you don't miss any additional reading or videos from our wealth of strengths information! You can review during or after the program.
- Allow 60 minutes for your pre-work:
 - Review your Level 2 Accreditation workbook and familiarize yourself with the content
 - Review the Toolkits at a high level
 - Have a recent Expert Profile of your own to hand to work with

Introduction

Your Materials

✓ A PDF of each of the Master Accreditation workbooks

✓ 4 Toolkits – Coaching, Team, Career Development and Manager

These will be most helpful to you after the accreditation for workshop and application ideas. We've noted the page numbers in the workbook where it would be useful to have these to hand however.

✓ Certificate

Following successful completion you'll receive a certificate.

Completing the Master Program has helped me expand my career as now I can use Strengths Profile in so many different ways. The tools are amazing! There is a fantastic set of resources you can refer to whether you want to do a team session, coach someone around their career or help someone with their confidence. It gave me so much confidence as a coach, which means I can make a real difference for my clients. I would highly recommend the Master Program as it will give you a much deeper level of knowledge and widen the way in which you use strengths. I also love the fact that it is online and I could do this in my own time. The videos are fun and interesting to follow, and it's a really enjoyable process.
